This publication was funded by the European Union's Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (2014-2020) and the Open Society Foundations (OSF). The contents of this publication are the sole responsibility of the partners of the project and can in no way be taken to reflect the views of the European Union or OSF.

Co-funded by the European Union

OPEN SOCIETY FOUNDATIONS

ROMANI EARLY YEARS NETWORK

INTERNATIONAL STEP by STEP ASSOCIATION

International Child Development Initiatives

www.toy4inclusion.eu

TOY FOR INCLUSION

TAKE A LOOK INSIDE THE PLAY HUBS

The community-based TOY for Inclusion Play Hubs are envisioned as a space where children & families

of all ages

are welcomed

to play games

with each other.

Play Hubs are spaces where children can engage in creative and social activities with other children and grown-ups.

meet other parents and professionals.

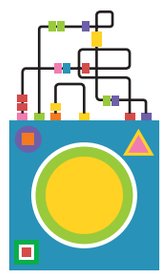
children's upbringing, health, early learning and development and

Parents and grandparents can get information about

FAVOURITE TOYS & IMPRESSIONS

"The Hub is the only place where I can have quality play time with my child. At home I am always too busy."

— A PARENT —



"First we were just borrowing toys in the TOY Play Hub, but now we feel at ease and more relaxed and we are building relationships with other parents."

— A PARENT —

MODELING CLAY

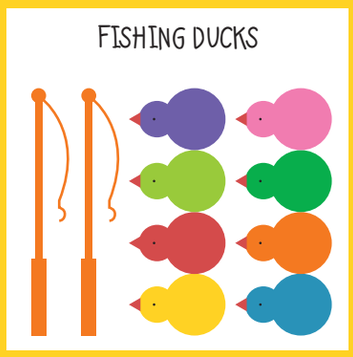
"I have made new friends."

— A CHILD —

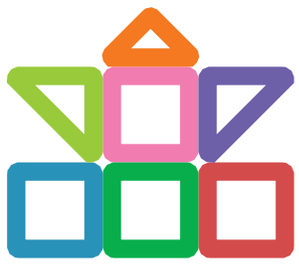
"This place is my dream land because I can play all the time."

— A CHILD —

FISHING DUCKS



MAGSNAPS CONSTRUCTORS



"The TOY Play Hub is an amazing place. Here in town most of the families cannot afford so many quality toys for their children."

— A PRATICTIONER —

BOARD GAMES

During life, people acquire knowledge and it is positive to have the chance to transmit it as part of history to the younger ones.

— A GRANDPARENT —

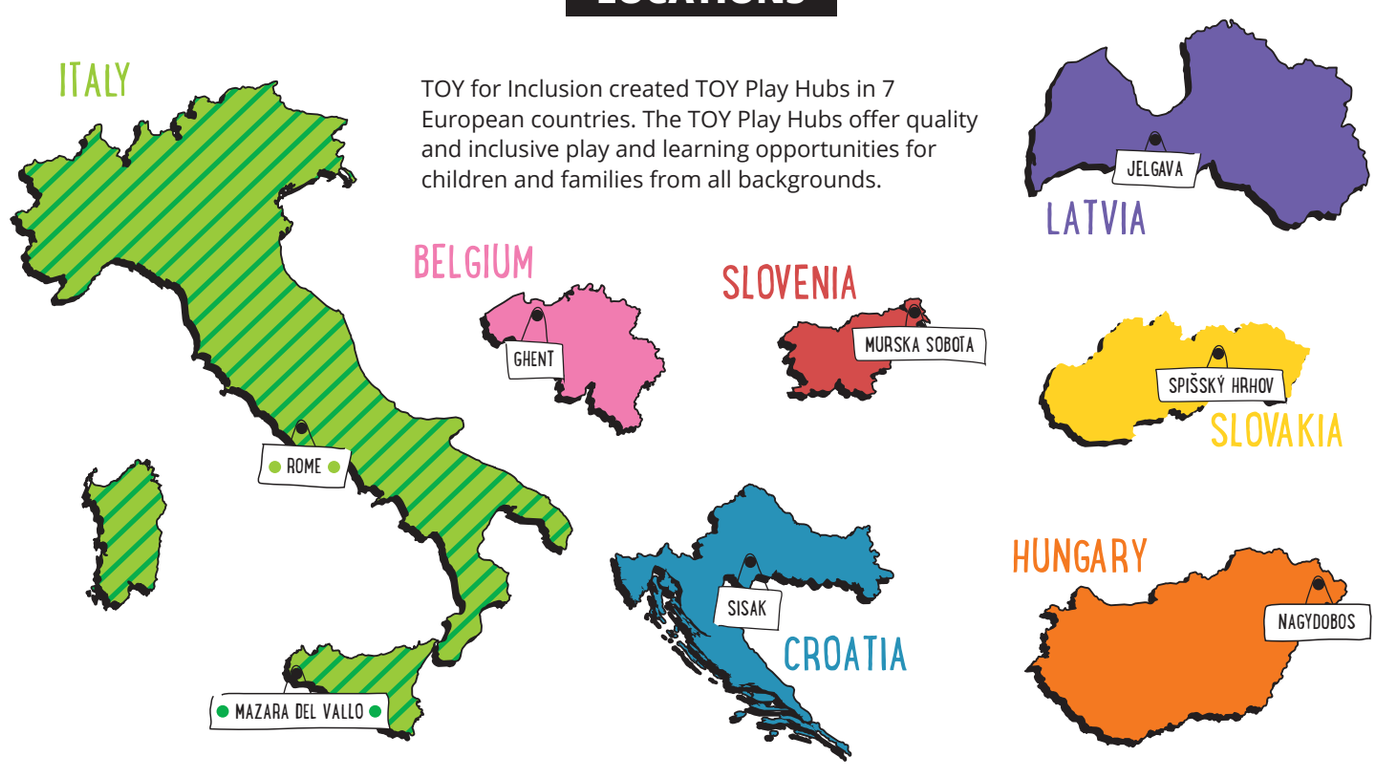
TOY FOR INCLUSION

Play Hubs

LEGEND

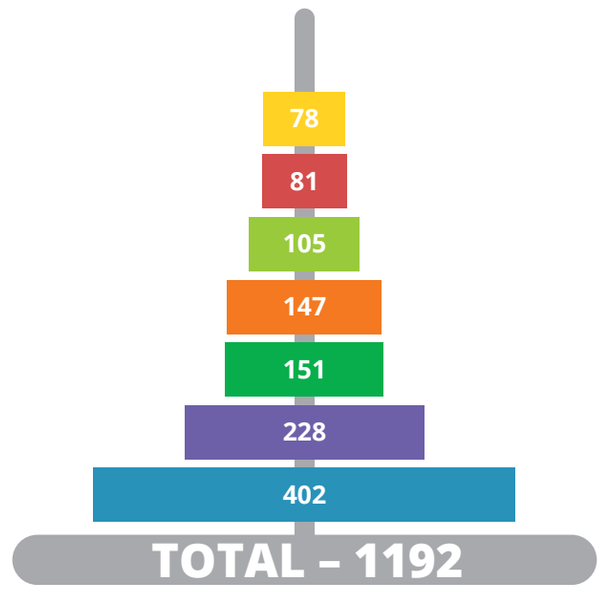
- BELGIUM, GHENT
- CROATIA, SISAK
- HUNGARY, NAGYDOBOS
- ITALY, MAZARA DEL VALLO
- ITALY, ROME
- LATVIA, JELGAVA
- SLOVAKIA, SPIŠSKÝ HRHOV
- SLOVENIA, MURSKA SOBOTA

LOCATIONS



TOY for Inclusion created TOY Play Hubs in 7 European countries. The TOY Play Hubs offer quality and inclusive play and learning opportunities for children and families from all backgrounds.

NUMBER OF TOYS



WORKSHOPS & ACTIVITIES

— in the first six months of implementation —

Along with the regular lending/borrowing of toys, other workshops and activities are organised such as:

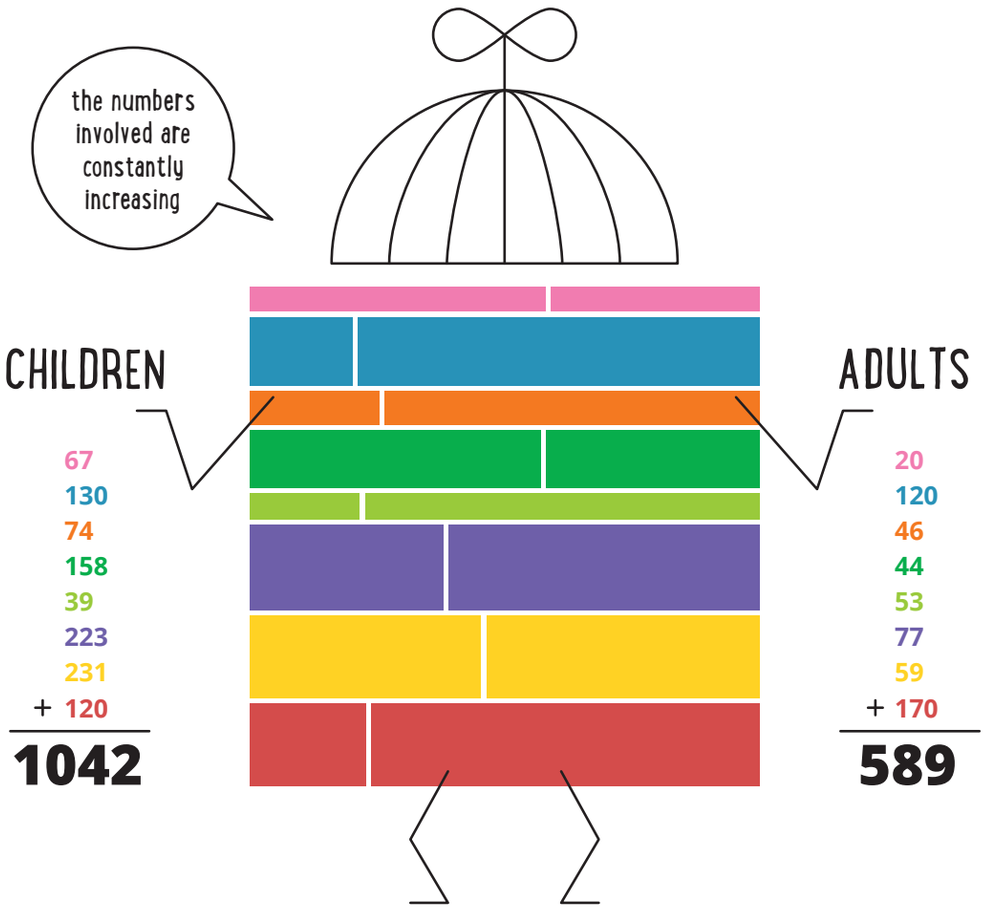
- — stay and play sessions
- — parent-child reading sessions
- — intergenerational activities and activities on cultural heritage
- — hand-craft and toy making activities
- — parent clubs
- — workshops or info-sessions for parents in cooperation with other services in the community.

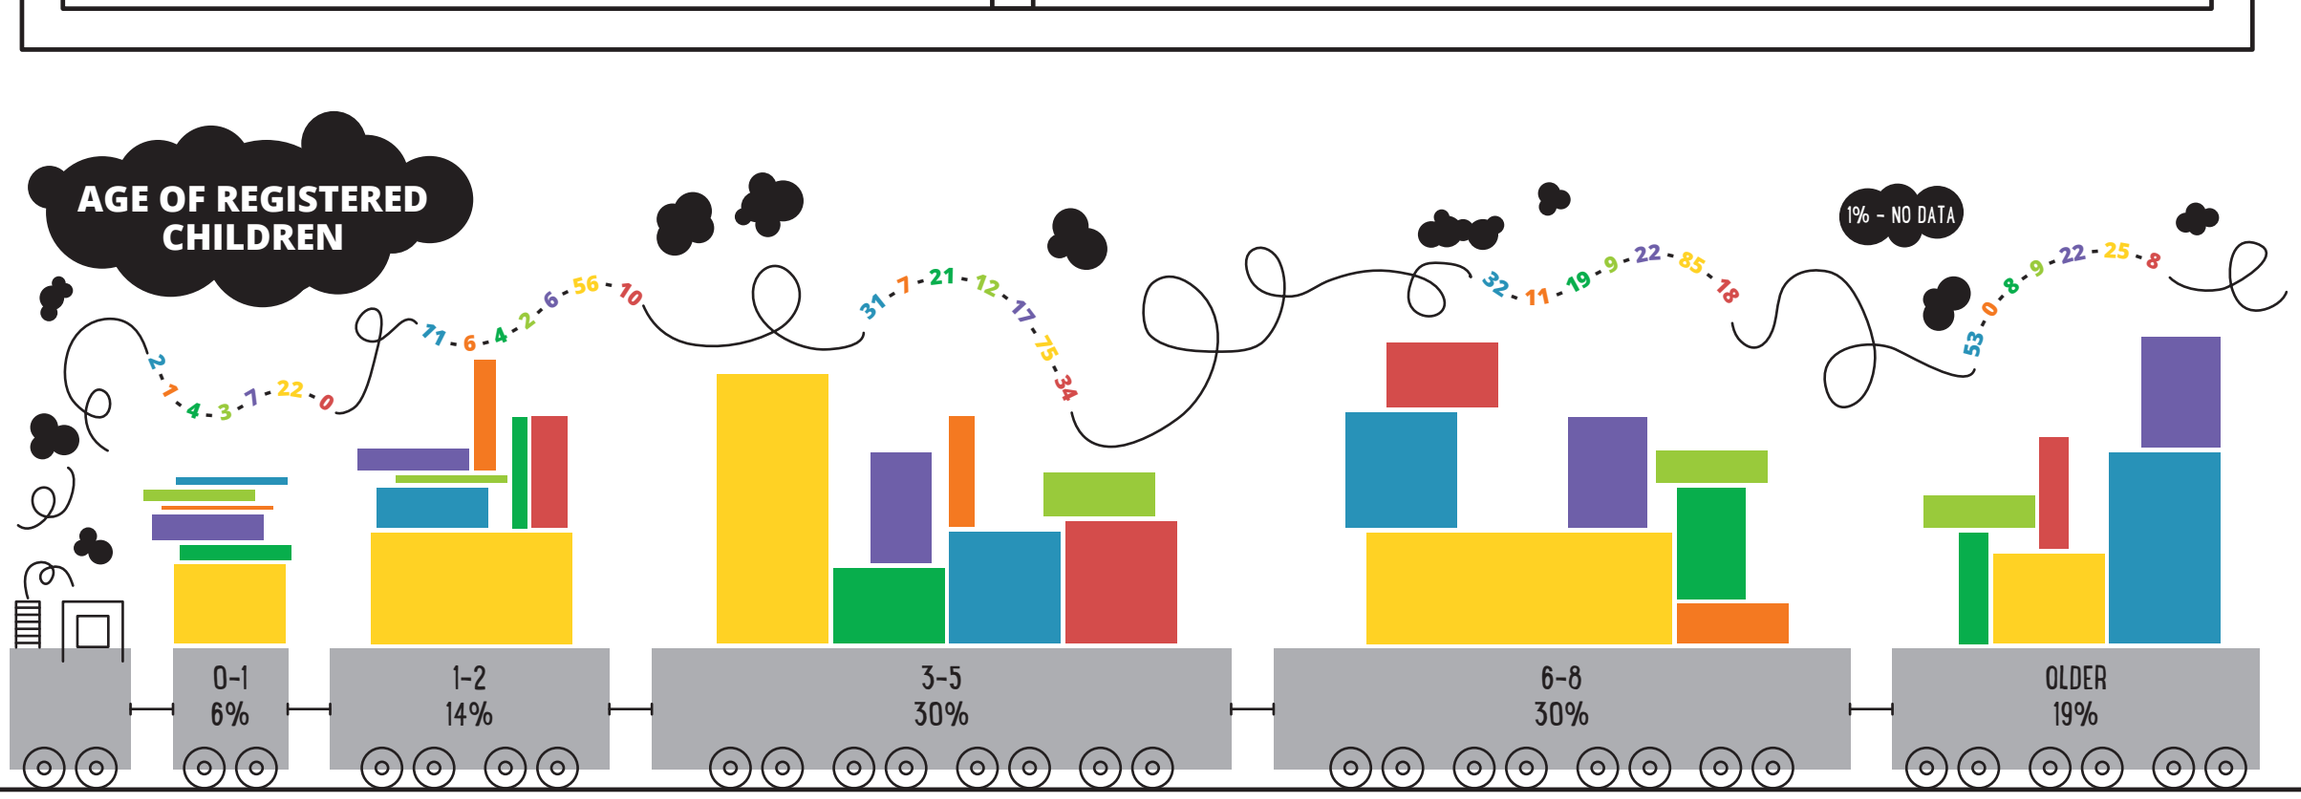
NUMBER OF WORKSHOPS & ACTIVITIES

— in the first six months of implementation —

PARICIPANTS

— in the first six months of implementation —





AGE OF REGISTERED CHILDREN